

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION MANAGEMENT CONCENTRATION

STRATEGY AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP

Management professionals use their expertise in strategy to consult with and create businesses.

In the management concentration, students delve into the various roles of leaders and their impact within organizations. They gain insights into navigating diverse scenarios, from effectively managing individuals in competitive environments to establishing strategic alliances in corporate settings.

In the realm of strategy and entrepreneurship, students acquire the skills needed to craft comprehensive business plans and initiate their own ventures through strategic decision-making and financial strategies. Class formats incorporate a blend of case studies, experiential learning, and classroom experiments, engaging students actively in the learning process.
